Miss FLORENCE KEAPPIK, Supervisor of the Furchasing Department, brought to the attention of Mr. SMOEMAKER the fact that several people while doing business in the Purchasing Department indicated they knew COLD's brother, HARRY. Accordingly, since Mrs. LOUISE HOWLAND was the person who learned this information, she was interviewed and stated that on perhaps four or five occasions JOSEPH GOLD told her that various persons not employed by Navy but doing business in the Purchasing Department had heard the name JOSEPH GOLD and asked if he know MARRY GOLD, the Chemist. After discussion, it was learned that these various persons, with one exception, had known HARRY COLD either through being employed with him or having business contacts with him in New York City. The name of the one exception who knew GOLD but no statement was made as to how he knew COLD was Dr. LOUIS G. FEMAN, a Chemist representing I. Miller and Sons, Inc., 43-10- 23rd Street, Long Island City, New York. Mrs. HOWLAND stated that FELAN had formerly leen associated with a knitting mill in Philadelphia which she believed to be the Fox Chase Knitting Mills prior to his association with I. Miller and Sons, Inc. in New York. reason that FEMAN's name was recalled was due to the fact that both Miss KMAPPIK and Mrs. MUMLAND went over records in the Purchasing Department in an effort to identify the persons who stated they knew HARRY COLD several days ago when GOLD's arrest was made public. The writer was shown a bid submitted August 14, 1949 for $6,759.80 rendered by I. Miller and Sons, Inc. for various articles of clothing which I. Miller was attempting to manufacture for Mavy. The signature of LOUIS G. FELIAN was on this bid.

Mrs. HOWLAND indicated that each of the persons stating to JOSEPH COLD that they were acquainted with his brother indicated they were very proud of the acquaintance, leading her to believe that these acquaintances were legitimate business contacts. The only one known to be a Chemist among the group was Dr. FEMAN.

Mrs. MOWLAND volunteered the information that JOSEPH COLD worked under her immediate supervision from the time he began work at the Naval Aviation Supply Depot until about February 1950 and stated he was an excellent worker who was very highly regarded by everyone who knows him.

Mrs. MONLIND also stated that JOSEPH COLD on a number of occasions prior to February 1950 had mentioned that his brother, MARRY, had a serious romantic interest in a gentile girl who lived in Germantown. He never mentioned the name of this girl.

The additional information of GOID, as furnished by him to the Civil Service Commission, is as follows:

Education

Engineer, Science and Management War Training Program at St. Joseph's College, Philadelphia. GOLD stated that he went to night school at St. Joseph's College and studied fermentation chemistry, from September, 1943, until April, 1944. He studied glass-blowing at the same school from September, 1944, until January, 1945.

He also said, in his personnel form, that he spoke German "fair," reads it "excellently," and understands it well. He said that he speaks French "fair," reads it well, and understands it "fair." He said that he acquired his knowledge of these foreign languages from college and high school studies.

He also said that he was a member of the Franklin Institute of Philadelphia and a member of the American Chemical Society.

In connection with his application for employment at the Civil Service Commission, GOLD executed the required loyalty oath, in that he did not, and never had advocated the overthrow of the United States Government, or that he was never a member of any organization that so advocated.

It was noted, in reviewing GOLD'S Civil Service Commission file, that there were numerouspages of both handwritten and handprinted specimens of GOLD'S handwriting. It is suggested that if handwriting specimens of GOLD are ever needed, that this file be taken into consideration.

A review of the above file indicated that GOLD had been certified for a position as a chemist on three different occasions. \odot

- 1. To the Bureau of Mines at Pittsburgh, Pa., on January 16, 1948. GOLD declined this position.
- GOID was offered the same position and again declined the same on August 17, 1948.

3. GOLD was certified for employment at the Philadelphia Quarter Easter Depot, on January 18, 1949, but he did not respond to the inquiry sent to him, requesting the information as to his eligibility for this position. Inasmuch as he did not reply to the inquiry, he was suspended from further certifications and placed on the inactive list.

GOLD executed another application for employment on May 13, 1947, which furnished substantially the same information as set out above.

Miss of the Civil Service Commission, advised that one of the agents in the Intelligence Division of the Commission, had told her that GOLD was employed at the Post Office in Philedelphia in 1928, but was discharged for falsifying records. Miss could furnish no information concerning this matter. It is recommended that a lead be set out to verify GOLD'S employment at the Post Office on the above date.

INDEX

Mr. FRANK UMIN was interviewed on May 29, 1950 and advised that his brother, JOSEPH UMIN, who is also a cousin of HARRY GOLD, has probably not associated with GOLD for the last ten years. He stated that JOSEPH UMIN moved to Baltimore approximately four years ago and is presently residing at 5507 Bell Ave., Baltimore, and is employed in the Production Department of Schloss Brothers, men's clothing manufacturers.

FRANK UMIN requested that if JOSEPH UMIN were interviewed such interview take place at JOSEPH's place of employment inasmuch as JOSEPH UMIN's wife is in her last month of pregnancy and he was afraid such an interview might overly excite her.

FRANK UMIN also advised that at one time JOSEPH UMIN resided on W. Hagert St. between 33rd and 34th Streets in Philadelphia. The office indices were checked and one reference is found on JOSEPH UMIN, which is as follows:

RECOMMENDATION -

It is recommended that the subject be removed from the SI.

Although the subject, in the past, was active in the CP being a member from 1943 through 1943, there has been no indication that he has had any connection with the CP since that time. Furthermore since he refused to do any estionage work for JULIUS ROSENBERG, and there is no indication that he has ever been active in recent years in anything connected with espionage for the Soviets, it is not believed that he would be a dangerous individual who could be expected to be inimical to the national defense and public safety of the United States in time of an emergency.

It is therefore believed that the subject does not come under the new criteria set out in SAClet 55-12 of 2/10/55.

The first FLORENCE KNAPPIK, Supervisor of the Purchasing Department, brought to the attention of Mr. SHORMAKER the fact that several people while doing business in the Furchasing Department indicated they knew COLD's brother, HAPPY. Accordingly, since Krs. LOUISE HOWLAND was the person who learned this information, she was interviewed and stated that on perhaps four or five occasions JOSEPA GOLD told her that various persons not employed by Navy but doing business in the Furchasing Department had heard the name JOSEPE GOLD and asked if he knew HARRY COLD, the Chemist. After discussion, it was learned that these various persons, with one exception, had known HARRY GOLD either through being employed with him or having business contacts with him in New! York City. The name of the one exception who knew GOLD but no statement was 🐬 made as to how he knew GOLD was Dr. LOUIS G. FEMAN, a Chemist representing I. Miller and Sons, Inc., 43-10-23rd Street, Long Island City, New York. Mrs. HOWLAND stated that FEMAN had formerly been associated with a knitting mill in Philadelphia which she believed to be the Fox Chase Knitting Mills prior to his association with I. Miller and Sons, Inc. in New York. The reason that FEL'AR's name was recalled was due to the fact that both liss EMPPH and Mrs. HOWLAND went over records in the Furchasing Department in and effort to identify the persons who stated they knew HARRY GOLD several days ago when GOLD's arrest was made public. The writer was shown a bid submitted [August 14, 1949 for 26,759.80 rendered by I. Miller and Sons, Inc. for various articles of clothing which I. Miller was attempting to manufacture for Navy.

l'rs. HOWLAND indicated that each of the persons stating to JOSEPH COLD that they were acquainted with his brother indicated they were very proud of the acquaintance, leading her to believe that these acquaintances were legitimate business contacts. The only one known to be a Chemist among the group was Dr. FELAN.

The signature of LOUIS G. FELAN was on this bid.

Wrs. HOWLAND volunteered the information that JOSEPH GOLD worked under her immediate supervision from the time he began work at the Naval Aviation Supply Depot until about February 1950 and stated he was an excellent worker who was very highly regarded by everyone who knows him.

Mrs. HOWLAND also stated that JOSEPH GOLD on a number of occasions prior to February 1950 had mentioned that his brother, HARRY, had a serious romantic interest in a gentile girl who lived in Germantown. He never mentioned the name of this girl.

LEWIS stated that he met JOEL BARR through ALFRED SARANT due to their mutual interest in music. LEWIS was not certain, but he believed BARR was also employed at the Army Signal Corps. He stated that he last saw BARR in October, 1945, while visiting ALFRED SARANT in his apartment in Greenwich Village, New York. He stated that he has not seen or been connected with BARR since 1945.

LEWIS stated that he was told by HARVEY SACHS in November, 1952, that both BARR and SARANT had left the United States and that he, SACHS, had been interviewed by FBI agents concerning SARANT and BARR.

LEWIS claimed that he had no knowledge of the present whereabouts of JOEL BARR and ALFRED SARANT, and in regard to knowing anybody that might have knowledge of their whereabouts, he was only able to suggest that an individual named JEAN SCHIFFELMAN (phonetic) was a friend of JOEL BARR and that SACHS and LIPTON also knew JOEL BARR. He did not know whether they might have any knowledge of BARR's present whereabouts.

He had no knowledge of any espionage activity on the part of ALFRED SARANT or BARR and he was never asked to engage in any espionage activity. He had in his possession a list of addresses. Among those were included H. SACHS, 224-35 Kingsbury Avenue, Flushing, New York, and M. LIPTON, 30 Laurel Street, Route 20, Long Branch, New Jersey.

HARVEY LEE SACHS, 1158 Ashley Drive, Valley Stream, Long Island, New York, was interviewed by Bureau agents on January 4 and 5, 1954, and he advised that he met JOTL BARR through ALFRED SARANT while residing at 590 Russell Avenue, Long Branch, New Jersey, as BARR on occasions had visited SARANT at this address. He stated that BARR and SARANT worked together in the same section at Fort Monmouth, New Jersey, and appeared friendly with each other. He stated he had no recollection of ever recommending employment at Fort Monmouth to either BARR or SARANT and was not cognizant of BARR's ever remarking to him that he had used SACHS' name as a reference for employment there. SACHS stated BARR, to his recollection, never stayed overnight at the 590 Russell Avenue address during the time that he, SACHS, resided there. SACHS stated that he characterized his relationship with EARR as that of an "acquaintance," and he was not very friendly with him. He stated that he knows of no espionage or questionable activity on the part of BARR which came to his attention during his association with him. He did advise, however, that from conversations that he had had with BARR, he believed him to be sympathetic to the Communist philosophy. He advised that he had no recollection of seeing or hearing from BARR subsequent to his leaving the 590 Russell Avenue address, which was in 1942.

In regard to C. NASH, from whom Mr. and Mrs. GILBOAFD received correspondence dated July 1, 1953, Mr. E. BURRUEZO, superintendent of the apartment house at 20 Clinton Street, New York, New York, advised that one ALERT MASH, whose wife's name is CHARLOTTE NASH, formerly resided at 20 Clinton Street but no longer resided there, having left sometime during the latter part of 1952 or early 1953. He stated that CHARLOTTE's mother and father still reside there and that their name is WEINSTEIN. He further advised that ALEERT NASH was an engineer and that he had heard that he was now working somewhere in the vicinity of Boston. He also advised that CHARLOTTE was a school teacher.

The New York indices contain no reference to either ALBERT or CHARLOTTE NASH.

T-1, of known reliability, advised that JOHL BARR is not known to be living in Switzerland at the present time.

In regard to JEAN SCHIFFELMAN (phonetic), mentioned by LEWIS, it is possible that this individual, since no further identification was given by LEWIS, is EUGENE HERRY SHEFTELMAN, who formerly worked at the Signal Corps, Fort Monmouth, New Jersey, and who resigned on June 22, 1951. He presently resides at 22-401 130th Avenue, Laurelton, New York, and is employed by the W. L. Maxson Corporation, 460 West 34th Street, New York, New York.

The records of the Board of Elections, Kings County, New York, for the 28th Election District, 17th Assembly District, reflect that SHEFTLIMAN, while residing at 126 Brooklyn Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, in 1939, registered to vote giving his party affiliation as the American Labor Party.

The American Labor Party has been cited as a Communist front by the Special Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, in its report dated March 29, 1944, pages 49, 77F, 153, and 189, and the Massachusetts House Committee on Un-American Activities report for 1938 reflects on page 356 that "Support of the Communist Party to the American Labor Party has been recognized by the appointment of a Communist to an official position in the city government."

T-2, another Government agency which conducts security and personnel investigations, advised that it had received an anonymous letter dated July 6, 1940, which declared that who lived in New York, expressed the belief that Communism is the ideal form of government.

In regard to RALFHARICKER, mentioned by LEMIS, T-3, of known reliability, advised on November 27, 1953, that KRICKER was formerly a student at Cooper Union, New York, New York, and graduated as an engineer during World-War II. KRICKER was employed as a project engineer designing motors for military circulation at the Electrolux plant at Old Greenwich, Connecticut. The informant added that he left this company to become the chief engineer at the Fairchild Camera and Instrument Company, Jamaica, New York.

The informant further advised that KRICKER now has his own business, the Syntorque Laboratories, Incorporated, of Woodstock, New York, and that the main contract at this company is from Cinerama to make camera motors of KRICKER's own design.

The same informant on August 9, 1953, advised that the KRICKERS are close associates of a DOROTHYXXILSON, who is a Communist Party member, but the informant has no definite information as to whether KRICKER is a Communist Party member.

LTD

The same informant advised on October 23, 1953, that one DOROTHY LECASS, a Communist Party member, was employed by RALPH ARICKER.

Both T-3 and T-4 have stated that RALPH KRICKER had attended various Communist Party functions in the Ulster County area.

In regard to MILTON LIPTON, mentioned by LEWIS as an associate of JOEL BARR, the New York Office files contain no information identifiable with a MILTON LIPTON who was employed at Fort Monmouth, New Jersey, or who lived at 30 Laurel Street, Route 20, Long Branch, New Jersey.

The same informant advised on October 23, 1953, that one DOROTHY Lacass, a Communist Party member, was employed by RALPH KRICKER.

Both T-3 and T-4 have stated that R.I.PH KRICKER had attended various Communist Party functions in the Ulster County area.

HARRY KRAIKER, Jr. - CSC; AEAA

HARRY GOLD, 6823 Kindred Street, Philadelphia, on 5/22/50, admitted that he was the individual to whom Dr. EMIL JULIUS KLAUS FUCHS passed information concerning the Atomic Bomb for transmission to Russia. FUCHS was sentenced as a spy at London, England, 3/1/50. GOLD also admitted 6/2/50, that he had worked for the Soviet Union as an industrial espionage agent since 1936.

GOLD submitted several names to his espionage superior for possible development as spies. Of the names submitted, three were fellow students in chemical engineering at the Drexel Institute of Technology: HAHRY KRAIKER, HOWARD DALSKI, and SOL WEINSTEIN. These men studied in a Saturday class session and then met on Sundays for independent study of the class problems. These classes and study periods continued until graduation in 1936. GOLD, however, did not give the names to his principal until 1940.

HOMARD HENEY DALSKE was interviewed by Special Agents, 10/5/50, as set forth in the report of SA MAHLON J. PRICE, made Philadelphia, 10/13/50 (65-4344). He stated that HARRY KRAIKER visited GOLD about two months prior to his arrest (May 1950). He had no reason to question the loyalty of HARRY KRAIKER. He stated that GOLD and KRAIKER were closer (friends) than he and GOLD and said this may have been due to the fact that KRAIKER was a more brilliant student than he.

In interview by Civil Service Investigator 11/3-30/54, as a reference for gave an account which is at variance with that given on initial interview.

- 1. He told CSC that he voluntarily advised FRI of his acquaintance with GOLD following GOLD's arrest, May 1950. Our files reflect he was never interviewed until the name was found in GOLD's possessions and Special Agents located him for interviews:
- 2. He also advised CSC, November 1950, that he and saw little of COLD after 1938, although he had seen him a few months prior to the May 1950 arrest of COLD, on one occasion.

SAC MEMO

In 1940, KRAIKER was working for C. P. Baker Company of Philadelphia, compounding and mixing polishes. He continued in this work until June 1942, when he enlisted in the U. S. Army Signal Corps. From 1946, the date of his discharge, until December 1952, he did research work and perfected a revolutionary process of reclaiming the pickling acids used in steel production.

HARRY GOLD should be interviewed specifically concerning his knowledge of the activities of HARRY KRAIKER, degree of association, and whether in contact with this man shortly prior to the May 1950 arrest. KRAIKER, from 1946 to GOLD's arrest, would have had access to information that would have been valuable to GOLD as an espionage agent.

DETAILS:

During the investigation of Tulius Rosenberg, convicted Soviet agent, it was determined that Fockson, an employee of the National Bureau of Standards, Washington, D. C., had been given as a character reference by Rosenberg in 1040, at the time Rosenberg made application for a position with the Department of the Army.

In August, 1950, Fockson was interviewed during the Rosenberg investigation and advised that he first became acquainted with Rosenberg while both were students at the College of the City of New York, during the 1930's. He admitted that in 1949, Rosenberg again visited him in Washington, D. C. He denied that he ever furnished Rosenberg any information or that Rosenberg had ever asked him for any information or attempted to recruit him for espionage purposes.

On the basis of Fockson's admitted association with Rosenberg, an espionage investigation was instituted on Fookson in December, 1950. This investigation failed to develop any evidence that Fookson was engaged in espionage although it was determined that in September, 1940, Fookson had made an application at the Soviet Government Furchasing Commission for employment, indicating a desire to go to Russia. It was further determined that his wife, Ann Fookson, was reported to have been connected with the United American Spanish Aid Committee, the Washington Committee for Democratic Action, and the Washington Bookshop

In 1951, a loyalty investigation was instituted on Fookson in view of his employment at the National Bureau of Standards. Investigation failed to develop any information reflecting activity on his part in CP or front organizations. Subject was thereafter placed under interim security restrictions in the lational Eureau of Standards in August, 1951. The Department of Commerce Loyalty Board directed an interrogatory to Fookson, based or information developed through our investigation. Fookson failed to answer this interrogatory and resigned from the Government on Fovember 7, 1951. He is no longer employed by the Government.

Information developed in this investigation was also referred to the United States Attorney, Southern District of New York with the view of determining whether the U.S. Attorney might desire to subpoens Fookson before a Federal Grand Jury that was conducting investigation into the activities of various known members of the Rosenberg espionage network.

By New York letter dated March 4, 1953, it was reported that AUSA Kilsheimer, SDNY, stated he did not intend to call Fookson before a FGJ at the present time because Fookson, while employed at the Mational Eureau of Standards, was not engaged in work of a confidential nature, and because of the expense involved in subpoenain; Fookson from Washington to New York, and in briefing another FGJ of matters relative to the Rosenberg case in order to bring Fookson before a FGJ. However, in the event a FGJ is called in the future to hear several or more withesses in connection with the Rosenberg case, he will consider having Fookson appear at that time.

A review of the case file reflects that all logical investigation has been conducted and no additional investigation appears warranted. Appropriate dissemination of investigative reports has been made to the Department. A check of Bureau references reflects that all pertinent information contained therein has been reported in the main case file.

Subject has not been recommended for the SI inasmuch as investigation has failed to develop that subject has been or is active in CI or front organizations in Washington, D. C.

He stated that he has never used any other alias, nor has he used the name LARKIN in any other employment.

Interview of JOSEPH LEVITSKY

During the interview with Special Agents ROBERT F. ROYAL and EDWARD J. CAHILL on 12/3/52, Subject furnished the following information:

In August, 1940, Subject was appointed an inspector with the U.S. Army Signal Corps. He stated that he was sent to the Civilian Training School, Fort Monmouth, N.J., before assignment as a Field Inspector. Subject said that training school started in October, 1940. While at Fort Monmouth, Subject resided at a hotel in Long Branch, N.J.

DAVID GREENGLASS is presently serving a fifteen-year sentence for transmitting certain classified data relating to the atomic bomb project at Los Alamos to HARRY GOLD, a confessed Communist spy. GREENGLASS learned through conversations with JULIUS ROSENBERG that JOEL BARR was an active Soviet espionage agent in the United States. BARR, in July, 1948, left the United States for Europe, ostensibly to study music. In June, 1950, BARR left his Paris residence and has not been seen since.

On 4/6/51 JULIUS ROSENBERG and his wife ETHEL ROSENBERG received the death penalty in the Federal Court, Southern District of New York, for conspiracy to commit espionage against the United States. During 1940, BARR was a laboratory technician employed by the U.S. Signal Corps at Fort Monmouth, N.J.

When questioned for information concerning JOE BARR, LEVITSKY stated that the name sounded familiar to him and that possibly he had met him at the time of his (LEVITSKY's) initial employment by the Signal Corps in the fall of 1940.

When questioned for details concerning BARR, LEVITSKY stated that he was not in his training class at Fort Monmouth; however, he believed that he must have met BARR at the bowling alleys in Long Branch, N.J. LEVITSKY said that occasionally he and other civilian employees would go bowling in the evening and he felt that some person had introduced BARR as another engineer working at Fort Monmouth. He stated that he was unable to furnish any other information concerning BARR and that he had last seen BARR in the fall of 1940.

LEVITSKY's first assignment as a Signal Corps Inspector was at the Radio Corporation of America, Philadelphia, Pa. However, he was actually assigned to work at the company's Camden, N.J., plant. He estimated that there were approximately thirty other Signal Corps Inspectors in the Camden plant. While he could not recall the name of the Inspector-In-Charge, he said that among the other inspectors were ISIDORE HODES, SID METZGER, MARKUS EPSTEIN, CARL GREENBLUM, KERMIT BRYNES and KEM MOGVARO.

It was noted by the interviewing agents that LEVITSKY did not mention JULIUS ROSENBERG as being another inspector at the Radio Corporation of America (RCA).

When questioned concerning this omission, LEVITSKY advised that at the time of the ROSENBERG trial in 1950, he recognized ROSENBERG from the newspaper accounts as a person he had met while working at the Signal Corps in Philadelphia. Both were at the Camden plant of RCA. LEVITSKY went on to say that he was amazed to read about him in the newspaper. LEVITSKY said his contacts had been on an extremely limited basis. He further remembered seeing JULIUS' wife, ETHEL, sitting in a car waiting for JULIUS to leave the RCA plant upon the conclusion of work. It was his recollection that JULIUS ROSENBERG was riding in another car pool. However, LEVITSKY was not able to identify the other members of the car pool. He went on to say that he was unable to furnish any additional information concerning ROSENBERG.

During the interview, however, LEVITSKY admitted to the interviewing agents that the above version was inaccurate since he wished to minimize his relationship with JULIUS ROSENBERG. This desire was motivated because of the notoriety connected with the ROSENBERG trial. Thereupon, LEVITSKY said the following information is an accurate and truthful version of his contacts with JULIUS ROSENBERG:

He first met JULIUS KOSENBERG shortly after his employment by the Signal Corps in August, 1940. In about October, 1940, both were sent to the Civilian Training School, Fort Monmouth, N.J. LEVITSKY stayed at a hotel in Long Branch, N.J., with other trainees while JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG stayed at an apartment located off the main street of Long Branch, N.J. He was unable to furnish any further identifying data concerning ROSENBERG's apartment.

During the period of approximately three months, they were stationed at Fort Monmouth, ROSENBERG invited LEVITSKY and several other members of the training class to his apartment for dinners. He believes these dinners occurred on several occasions and were attended by KEM MOGVARO, ISIDORE HODES, and himself. He could not recall the names of any other persons who attended.

LEVITSKY at first said that JOEL BARR had not visited at this apartment. However, after reflection, he stated that he was not sure if BARR was or was not present during any of his visits.

Sometime toward the end of December, 1940, the training class was completed and the members were handed various assignments: ISIDORE HODES, SID METZGER, MARKUS EPSTEIN, CARL GREENBLUM, KEM MOGVARO, and JULIUS ROSENBERG were sent to the Philadelphia Office of the Signal Corps. In turn, they were assigned to work at the RCA Camden plant.

At this time, LEVITSKY rented an apartment with MARKUS EPSTEIN and KEM MOGVARO which was located at Fifteenth Street near Spruce or Pine St., Philadelphia, Pa. After staying there a short period of time, they moved to an apartment in West Philadelphia. However, he could not recall the address.

While in West Philadelphia, EPSTEIN, who owned a car, would drive to the Camden, N.J., plant carrying other riders with him.

During this same period, JULIUS ROSENBERG, who also was residing in the same area of West Philadelphia, would on occasion join the car pool for the purpose of riding to the RCA plant. ROSENBERG was living in the same neighborhood in West Philadelphia.

LEVITSKY also advised that on several weekends during that year, 1941, EPSTEIN would drive his car to New York and in the car with EPSTEIN and LEVITSKY would be JULIUS ROSENBERG. Upon entering New York City, EPSTEIN, who was driving to Brooklyn, would discharge JULIUS ROSENBERG at a subway stop near the Holland Tunnel and continue on his way. At no time could he recall that they had ever driven JULIUS ROSENBERG directly to any residence in New York City.

In the fall of 1941, LEVITSKY was assigned as an inspector at the Cardwell Company, New York City, and he lived with his parents at 719 Woodruff Ave., Brooklyn, N.Y. He went on to say that he had no contact with ROSENBERG after leaving RCA in Philadelphia.

LEVITSKY, when questioned if he had ever used JLIUS ROSENBERG's name as a reference, stated that he could not recall ever having listed his name.

It was pointed out to him that, when he had filed an employment application with FTL in November, 1943, the name JULIUS ROSENBERG, 10 Monroe St., New York City, had been used.

Thereupon, LEVITSKY advised that probably ROSENBERG had given him his name and address when they were working together at RCA in Philadelphia.

It was then pointed out to LEVITSKY that he had stated that his contact with ROSENBERG had ceased after the fall of 1941, and that ROSENBERG had moved to 10 Monroe Street in April, 1942.

In accounting for the 10 Monroe Street address of JULIUS ROSENBERG, LEVITSKY believes that sometime either in the spring or fall of 1942, he attended a musical concert at Washington Irving High School. During the intermission at this concert, he had a chance meeting with JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG. They chatted, and when the concert was resumed, they parted company. LEVITSKY believes it was at this concert that JULIUS and ETHEL invited him to visit their apartment, which accounts for his having the 10 Monroe Street address.

LEVITSKY advised that in 1943, KERMIT BRYNES suggested to him that FTL was a "good place to work." BRYNES had formerly been employed by FTL and at that time was working with LEVITSKY.

It was pointed out to LEVITSKY that his employment application did not reflect the name of KERMIT BRYNES as a reference and it appeared logical, since BRYNES was a former FTL employee and believed that FTL was a good place to work, that his name would be a suitable reference.

LEVITSKY believes that in reviewing his address book, he had come across the name of JULIUS ROSENBERG and had simply used his name because it had been recently placed in the book and "fresh in my mind." LEVITSKY stated that he had never seen JULIUS ROSENBERG since the above-mentioned meeting and was unable to furnish any other information concerning him.

LEVITSKY stated that in November, 1943, he began his employment at FTL. He believes he was assigned to the S-4 section of the laboratory as a junior engineer. He was assigned to a work bench which was directly facing the bench of SOL GREENBERG. This was his first contact with GREENBERG.

From November, 1943, until about January, 1947, LEVITSKY was employed on a Navy radar project of a classified nature. Others working on this project were BOB HOUSTON, CLEM TIONAYTIS, NAT COHEN and ALFRED BERRY. During this period he was on friendly terms with GREENBERG, having lunched together on occasions.

In 1945 he attended a Broadway musical with his wife, GREENBERG, and a girl whose identity LEVITSKY could not recall.

LEVITSKY remembered that the telephone number of the laboratory was Bowling Green 9-3800, and Extension 604 was the extension assigned for his use. He could not furnish any information concerning the use of this extension by GREENBERG other than the fact that GREENBERG had access to same.

Beginning in the year 1947 and continuing through the summer of 1948, he was assigned to the CXJY project. On this classified project, he worked with ANTHONY FINOCCHI, HERBERT COX, CLARENCE HATHAWAY, JIMMY GRIEG, and GREENEERG.

He and GREENBERG went to Washington, D.C., in the spring and summer of 1948 to conduct field tests of the CXJY project. He recalled that this radar project utilized the Arlington Naval Station, a Suitland water tower, and Anapolis, Md., transmitting station for test purposes. While these tests were being conducted, they resided at the Congressional Hotel in Washington, D.C.

During this time their acquaintanceship developed into a close friendship. While in Washington, D.C., they had very little time for any social activity and LEVITSKY could not recall any friends that GREENBERG may have visited or contacted while there.

Upon the conclusion of these tests, LEVITSKY was assigned to a commercial radar project on which he is still working and to the best of his knowledge is not classified. He did state, however, that he does have access to restricted areas.

- LEVITSKY stated that while their friendship developed in recent years, neither had visited the home of the other despite this fact.

Davenport 4-3856, according to LEVITSKY, is the telephone number of MANDBLITT MEYER, 4634 North Eleventh St., Philadelphia, Pa., who is his wife's father. He explained that while on the CXJY project, GREENBERG and he travelled between Washington and New York on week-ends.

He recalled that on one week-end he stopped at Philadelphia to visit his father-in-law and he furnished the Davenporttelephone number to GREENBERG so that in the event GREENBERG was not able to meet him in Washington the following Monday, GREENBERG was to call and advise him that he was unable to keep the appointment.

The Ingersoll telephone number, LEVITSKY explained, is listed in the name of MORRIS FEIT, 255 Parkside Ave., Brooklyn, N.Y. This is the telephone number LEVITSKY utilized while residing in Brooklyn.

On his FTL employment application dated 11/6/43, he listed the following references:

BERMARD KLEBAN, mechanical engineer, 14 Metropolitan Oval, Brooklyn, N.Y. LEVITSKY described KLEBAN as a friend. They had attended the Cooper Union Institute for Advancement of Science and Art together.

KARL GREENBLUM, radio engineer, 274 Stockton St., Brooklyn, N.Y. He described GREENBLUM as a co-worker in the Signal Corps and was presently working at Fort Monmouth, N.J.

JULIUS ROSENDERG, radio engineer, 10 Monroe St., New York City.

On his Personnel Security Questionnaire of August, 1950, LEVITSKY listed the following references:

BERNARD SHERAN, 2333 Grand Ave., Bronx, N.Y. In July, 1943, both were Signal Corps inspectors assigned to the Bendix Plant, Baltimore, Md. He last saw SHERAN about one year ago.

KARL GREENBERG, 212 Second Ave., Asbury Park, N.J., former inspector with the United States Signal Corps.

- MARCUS EPSTEIN, 137-53 Francis Lewis Blvd., Rosedale, N.Y., a friend and former co-worker with the United States Signal Corps.

LOUIS ANTELL, 1636 Park Pl., Brooklyn, N.Y., former co-worker in the United States Signal Corps.

BERNARD KLEBAN, 14 Metropolitan Rd., New York.

Newark Confidential Informant T-1, of unknown reliability, has advised that he had occasion to question JULIUS MOSENBERG concerning the names of his contacts and ROSENBERG said, "you know a man by the name of GREENBERG who is a big electrical engineer at General Electric at Newark."

Investigation has previously been conducted at various General Electric installations in and about Newark. However, no record of any electrical engineer named GREENBERG has been found.

GREENBERG's services with the Federal Telecommunication Laboratories, (FTL) Nutley, N.J., began in June, 1943, and were terminated with his resignation on 9/12/52. This resignation was submitted at the request of Admiral CHESTER HOLDEN, President, FTL, following GREENBERG's admission to company officials that he had been taking classified material from the plant to work on at home. This admission was made after GREENBERG had been interviewed by Bureau Agents on 8/5-8/52, and, during the course of the interview, he had admitted the same.

Concerning his last contact with GREENBERG, LEVITSKY advised that in September, 1952, he was on two days! sick leave from FTL and when he returned to work he was advised that SOL GREENBERG had resigned his position with FTL. LEVITSKY said that he was amazed to hear this and that he was quite surprised since GREENBERG had such a good position and his future seemed assured.

LEVITSKY stated that he made inouiries from fellow employees but was unable to determine exactly why GREENBERG left the company. He admitted that he, LEVITSKY, was in a daily car pool from River Edge, N.J., with ARNOLD LEVINE who was a co-worker of GREENBERG; however, LEVITSKY advised that LEVINE was unable to furnish any information concerning GREENBERG's resignation.

LEVITSKY advised that one evening in either September or October, he could not name the exact date, he was en route from his dentist in Brooklyn, N.Y., to his home in River Edge, N.J. About 9:00 p.m. while waiting for the bus at the Port Authority Building, Eighth Ave. and 41st St., New York City, he had a "by-chance" meeting with GREENEERG. As a result of the meeting, LEVITSKY stayed with GREENEERG for the next two and one-half hours.

During the course of the meeting, they had a drink, a cup of coffee, and walked about the vicinity of the Port Authority Building discussing friends, work, and general topics. During the course of the conversation, he was advised by GREENBERG that he, GREENBERG, had resigned in order to go into the family business. GREENBERG furnished him no other details.

After he had furnished the above version, LEVITSKY admitted to the agents that it was not the truth and he desired to furnish the correct version. He advised the agents that he had not been visiting his dentist in Brooklyn but had, by pre-arrangement, met GREENERG.

LEVITSKY stated that when GREENBERG resigned, he was on two days sick leave. Because he could not determine the exact reason for GREENBERG's resignation, he called him and by pre-arrangement they met at the Port Authority Bus Terminal, Eighth Ave. and 41st St., New York City, at 9:00 p.m. LEVITSKY believes the meeting occurred in October; however, he declined to furnish a definite date.

He stated that he was curious to know why GREENBERG had resigned and since they had been friendly since 1943, he wished to contact him. They met at 9:00 p.m. and for the next two and one-half hours walked about the area in the vicinity of the Bus Terminal.

GREENBERG would only tell him that he resigned to enter the family business and would furnish no other details. The remainder of the time was spent in general conversation.

LEVITSKY advised that when other fellow workers resigned from FTL, it was not his practice to contact them to determine why they had left and that this was the only instance in which he has had such a meeting.

LEVITSKY stated that he had never been approached by anyone for empionage purposes and if he had been, he would have reported it to the proper authorities.

It should be noted that early in the interview, this question was asked and LEVITSKY advised the interviewing agents that he would recognize such an approach no matter how subtle it might be; however, when questioned concerning ROSENBERG, he stated that he was amazed when he heard of ROSENBERG's arrest for espionage since he did not appear to be the type who would engage in espionage. He thereupon admitted that he did not believe he could detect any person engaged in espionage activities.

Interview of MARKUS EPSTEIN

On 1/8/53, MARKUS EPSTEIN, Electronics Engineer and Reference of JOSEPH LEVITSKY, was interviewed at his place of employment, the Empire Laboratories, 38-25 Bell Blvd., Bayside, Long Island, by Special Agents ROBERT F. ROYAL and EDWARD J. CAHILL.

EPSTEIN advised that in 1941 he owned a 1940 grey Chevrolet sedan and he used it to drive back and forth from work. Also riding with him were AL WALKER, KARL GREENBLUM, KEW MOGVARO, JOSEPH LEVITSKY, and LOU GRANDIVISO. At various times, JULIUS ROSEMBERG joined the car pool.

During the interview, EPSTEIN stated that he considered JOSEPH LEVITSKY a liberal and pro-Russian. When requested to explain, he cited an incident which he states he recalls very vividly. One day when he was driving to the apartment from work at RCA in Camden, LEONARD GRANDIVISO read an article from one of the newspapers dealing with a Russian worker who had received a medal for increasing his work output. GRANDIVISO, ESPSTEIN said, did this in a joking manner inasmuch as it was rather common knowledge among the others that LEVITSKY would rise up and defend the Russian viewpoint.

Concerning GRADIVISO's remarks, EPSTEIN stated that LEVITSKY did defend the Russian viewpoint in this instance and remarked something to the effect that "You wait and see. Russia will come out of the war a winner."

EPSTEIN advised that he is a good friend of LEVITSKY and wanted to present an accurate picture. He said he would not consider him a Communist in that he would desire to overthrow the United States Government, but, as was stated before, LEVITSKY had a very favorable attitude towards Russia. It might be explained by the fact that Russia at that time was an ally of the United States in World War II.

EPSTEIN advised that he has never seen any Communist literature when he visited at LEVITSKY's home, nor was there any indication that LEVITSKY was a member of the Communist Party.

DETAILS:

This investigation is predicated upon information furnished by MAX ELITCHER to Special Agents VINCENT J. CAHILL and JAMES T. O'BRIEN during interviews conducted at the New York Office on July 20, 21, 24, and 27, 1950.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION REGARDING MIX ELITCHER

MIX ELITCHER advised that he was born in New York City on September 1, 1918. He attended the College of the City of New York from 1934 until June 1938 and graduated with a degree of Bachelor of Electrical Engineering. He was employed in the Bureau of Ordnance, Navy Department, from 1938 until September 30, 1948, when he resigned from the Navy to accept a position with the REEVES INSTRUMENT CORPURITION, New York City. He advised that he is presently employed at the REEVES INSTRUMENT CORPORATION, 215 East 91st Street, New York City, as an Engineer.

MIX/ELITCHER also stated that he had joined the Communist Party sometime in 1939 in Washington, D. C., and was active in Communist Party activities until sometime in 1948, just prior to his coming to New York.

In a signed statement dated July 20, 1950, MIX ELITCHER admitted that JULIUS ROSENBERG contacted him during the Summer of 19th at his home in Washington, D. C., and attempted to recruit him into a Soviet espionage network. ELITCHER stated that ROSENBERG asked him to furnish reports and drawings on the work he was doing at the Bureau of Ordnance, Navy Department, Washington, D. C. ELITCHER advised that at that time he had access to confidential information. ELITCHER said he did not flatly refuse ROSENEERG but put him off with vague excuses. As a result, ELITCHER advised, his relationship with ROSENEERG continued from the Summer of 19th until the Spring of 19th. ELITCHER stated he saw ROSENBERG approximately six times during this period and on each occasion ROSENBERG renewed his request of ELITCHER for information.

INFORMATION REGARDING WILLIAM DANZIGER

During the course of interrogation of MAX ELITCHER, extensive inquiries were made as to the identities of other individuals who possibly were contacted by JULIUS ROSENBERG, in order that ROSENBERG could solicit information from them and recruit them into a Soviet espionage network. In this connection, MAX ELITCHER advised that in one of his earlier meetings with JULIUS ROSENBERG, either in Washington or New York, ROSENBERG introduced the name of WILLIAM DANZIGER to him, recalling to ELITCHER that DANZIGER had been a classmate of theirs at CCNY during the period from 1934 to 1938.

ELITCHER recalled that DANZIGER went to Washington with him (ELITCHER) in November 1938, after their graduation from the College of the City of New York, and further recalled that they both secured positions with the Bureau of Ordnance, Navy Department, Washington, D. C. ELITCHER and DANZIGER resided together at 1316 Delafield Place, Washington, D. C., for a short time after their arrival in Washington.

ELITCHER stated that ROSENBERG asked him where DANZIGER was working and generally expressed interest in DANZIGER'S work. ELITCHER advised that he told ROSENBERG that DANZIGER was not in Washington, D. C., at that time but was believed to be working somewhere in California. ELITCHER estimated that this early inquiry about DANZIGER by ROSENBERG was made either in the Fall of 1944 or possibly as late as the early part of 1945.

ELITCHER advised that on one other occasion, possibly in 1945 or 1946, after the end of World War II, ROSENBERG again inquired of him as to DANZIGER'S whereabouts. ELITCHER stated that at this time DANZIGER had been transferred from California to the Bureau of Ordnance, Navy Department, Washington, D. C., and was employed as an Ordnance Engineer.

ELITCHER emphasized that he did not know whether ROSENBERG ever contacted DANZIGER or whether anyone ever contacted DANZIGER at ROSENBERG'S request. He indicated, however, that it was his impression, from ROSENBERG'S attitude and from the fact that inquiries had been made twice about DANZIGER, that ROSENBERG possibly had DANZIGER in mind as a potential recruit for his espionage network.

It should be noted that the Consumers Union was cited as being under Communist control, influenced by or in collaboration with the Communist Party, by the Committee for Cultural Freedom, Professor JOHN MEMEY, Chairman, April 1940. The Consumers Union was also cited as "subversive and un-American" by the Special Committee of the House Committee on Appropriations report dated April 21, 1943, Page 3. COMMUNIST PARTY MEMBERSHIP OF WILLIAM DANZIGER AND SYLVIA DANZIGER

MAX ELITCHER advised on July 27, 1950, that WILLIAM DANZICER had been a member of the Communist Party from approximately 1939 until the Summer of 1948. He indicated that DANZICER may still be a member of the Party. ELITCHER said that he based this information on personal knowledge. He indicated further that DANZICER had a background of Communist Party association, and said that he was a member of a Communist cell in the Navy Department, Washington, D. C., during the time of his employment at the Bureau of Ordnance.

Confidential Informant T-3, of known reliability, advised on June 23, 1913, that SYLVIA DANZIGER had transferred her membership in the Communist Party from New York to Long Beach in the Harbor Section of the Los Angeles County Communist Party.

Confidential Informant T-4, of known reliability, advised in 1944 that the membership roster of the Long Beach Communist Party Club bore the name SYLVIA DANZIGER with the address 2270 Belmont Avenue, Long Beach, California.

It should be noted that the loyalty data form dated September 29, 1947, which is contained in the records of the Bureau of Ordnance, Navy Department, lists the residence address for WILLIAM DANZIGER, between the years 1943 and 1945, as 2270 Belmont avenue, Long Beach, California.

NY 65-15396

This assignment card reflects that SYLVIA DANZIGER reported to the Los Angeles Headquarters of the Communist Party on June 8, 1943.

Confidential Informant T-6, of known reliability, ascertained in 19th that the Communist Party membership book of SYLVIA DANZICER bears in parenthesis, following the name DANZICER, the name TUCKER.

Confidential Informant T-7, of known reliability, advised that SYLVIA DANZIGER, with alias SYLVIA TUCKER, transferred her membership in the Communist Political Association from the Long Beach Branch, Long Beach, California, to Washington, D. C., on March 20, 1945. The transfer was made on Communist Political Association Transfer Card No. 22318, and a notation on this card in pencil stated, "Book No. 46429", which may indicate SYLVIA DANZIGER'S CPA membership number.

INFORMATION REGARDING MORTON SCHELL AND WILLIAM DANZIGER

MIX ELITCHER stated that MORTON SOHELL attended the College of the City of New York from 1934 to 1938, and was graduated from the Engineering School with a Bachelor of Science degree. ELITCHER stated that he was an acquaintance of SOEELL at City College but did not associate. with him and never went out socially with him. ELITCHER stated he next saw SOBELL in Washington, D. C., about December of 1938. ELITCHER reiterated that he had arrived about November of 1938 to work with the Bureau of Ordnance, Navy Department. According to ELITCHER, SOBELL, after arriving in Washington in December of 1938, obtained a position as an with Engineer with the Bureau of Ordnance, Navy Department, and SOHELL lived next door to ELITCHER, who then was residing at 1316 Delafield Place. Sometime prior to April of 1939, ELITCHER indicated that he and SOBELL took an apartment together at 4925 Seventh Street, Washington, D. C. They lived at this address for about one year and then moved to 2225 "N" Street, N.W., Washington. They remained there together until about September of 1941, when SOHELL left to do graduate work at the University of Michigan in electrical engineering.

Joined the Communist Party sometime in 1939 in Washington, D. C. ELITCHER

the said of the second of the explained that he was induced and persuaded to join the Communist Party in Washington by MORTON SOBELL. SOBELL told ELITCHER, sometime in 1939, that he, himself, was a member of the Communist Party. MAX ELITCHER, as stated previously, said that WILLIAM DANZICER was also a member of the Communist Party and that, although DANZICER did not participate in, or attend, the early meetings of the Navy Department cell of the Communist Party, he did attend later meetings and was active in Party activities up to the time that ELITCHER left the Bureau of Ordnance, Washington, D. C., about August of 1948.

MAX ELITCHER continued with the resume of MORTON SOBELL by stating that, in the latter part of 1947, SOBELL purchased a home near his (ELITCHER'S) home in Flushing, New York. Shortly after SOBELL'S arrival in New York City, SOBELL obtained employment also at the REEVES INSTRUMENT CORPORATION, where ELITCHER is employed.

MAX ELITCHER, in a signed statement dated July 21, 1950, advised that he had been told by JULIUS ROSENBERG that SOBELL was cooperating with ROSENBERG in obtaining information for the Russians.

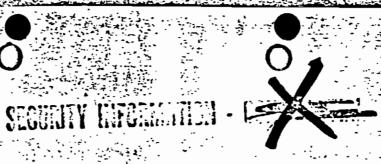

MAX ELITCHER also stated that the subject, WILLIM D.NZICER, visited MORTON SOBELL in the Fall of 1949 at SOBELL'S home in Flushing, New York. According to ELITCHER, this visit took place shortly after the subject, WILLIAM D.NZICER, was discharged from his position at the Bureau of Ordnance, Navy Department, Washington, D. C., on loyalty grounds.

In this connection, the records of the Office of Industrial Relations, United States Navy, Pentagon, Room 5E-811, Washington, D. C., reflect that WILLIAM D.NZIGER was released from the Navy Department on September 16, 1949, as a security risk.

Regarding MORTON SORELL, the records of American Lirlines, LaGuardia Airport, New York City, reflect SORELL left for Mexico City on June 22, 1950.

Confidential Informant T-8, of known reliability, advised that WILLIAM and SYLVIA DANZIGER listed a change of address on May 13, 1950, from 5501 Seventh Street, N.W., Washington, D. C., to 1777 Bryant Avenue, New York 60, New York. The same informant edvised that WILLIAM and SYLVIA DANZIGER listed another change of address on May 19, 1950, to 124 Featherbed Lane, New York 52, New York.

The records of the CONSOLID/TED EDISON COMPANY, New York, as checked by Special Agent WILLIAM O. MCCUE, reflect that WILLIAM DANZIGER is now employed at the ACADEMY ELECTRICAL PRODUCTS COMPANY, 4849 Broadway, and that he resides at 124 Featherbed Lane, Bronx, New York 52, New York.

Vised that the DANZIGERS occupy Apartment 3 at 12h Featherbed Lane, New York 52, New York.

It is pointed out that WILLIAM DANZIGER'S personal history and background, with the exception of his present residence and employment, were verified during the investigation of DANZIGER entitled "WILLIAM DANZIGER, Ordnance Engineer, Bureau of Ordnance, Navy Department, Washington D. C.", with the character of the case being "IOYALTY OF GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES".

Confidential Informant T-10, of known reliability, advised on July 18, 1950, that he had been a fellow student at CCNY with JULIUS ROSENBERG and with WHILIAM DANZIGER. All that this informant could remember concerning DANZIGER was that DANZIGER was a member of the "Leftist" group at CCNY.

MAX ELITCHER stated, in evaluating WILLIAM DANZIGER'S character and background, that it was possible, in the event DANZIGER was approached by ROSENBERG, that he would not consent to turn over confidential information to ROSENBERG. ELITCHER intimated that, although DANZIGER was active in, and sympathetic toward, the Communist Party, he felt that DANZIGER would draw the line as far as espionage work was concerned and that he would, therefore, not accede to ROSENBERG'S request. ELITCHER stated that DANZIGER had always been a fairly close friend of MORTON SOBELL and that it is possible that DANZIGER might have turned over information if requested by MORTON SOBELL or JULIUS ROSENBERG.

By teletype dated August 8, 1950, the Washington Field
Office was requested to sutel a summation of WHLIAM DANZIGER'S Loyalty Hearing.

Also by teletype dated August 8, 1950, Bureau permission was requested to conduct simultaneous, but separate, interviews of WHILIAM DANZIGER and his wife, SYLVIA DANZIGER.

on August 8, 1950, a mail cover was placed on WILLIAM and SYLVIA DANZICER at 124 Featherbed Lane, apartment 3, New York 52, 1987 New York

This Informant advised that the disorderly conduct was in the nature of boisterous social activities, which continued until all hours of the night and had been the source of considerable complaint by the adjacent residents at the time.

This Informant further advised that probably the cause of this conduct on the part of SILVERMAN and her friends was the fact that four or five young man of the same faith, occupied the adjoining apartment, No. 41, and that this had resulted in SILVERMAN and her friends becoming acquainted with these boys and both groups indulging in numerous late parties. This Informant stated that both these groups left the apartment building at approximately the same time, and that upon cleaning the apartment occupied by the boys, considerable literature was found, sufficient to fill a piano box, but that no literature of any nature was left in the apartment occupied by SILVERMAN and her friend.

she had not noticed it carefully and that she could not identify its source. However, a considerable amount of it appeared to be publications of various government agencies and the entire batch was piled in the center of the floor.

DETAILS: On August 19, 1954, Mr. HERRI LEITLAN advised that Mrs. HENRIETTA PERC, wife of subject, had returned from her visit with subject's parents, and that he expected her to reside at his home at Spring Valley for the remainder of the summer.

About August 24, 1954, LEITIAN advised that Mrs. PERL was to join him and his wife at their summer bungalow at Cape, May, New Jersey, where she would stay for two to three weeks. Later Mr. LEITMAN advised that Mrs. PERT was again living with subject's parents at their home in the Bronx.

On September 22, 1954, Ir. LEITMAN advised that Mrs. PERL had returned to his home at Spring Valley. [4]

On September 23, 1954, Mrs. HEMRIETTA PIRE, Mrs.

Mrs. PETL had ever said or done anything which would cause Mrs. LEITMAN and Ar. SAVIDGE to question whether subject had been engaged in espionage. Both Mrs. LEITMAN and Mr. SAVIDGE stated that from the time they knew subject, he had been quiet and at no time ever said or did anything that would cause them to have the slightest suspicion of him. They both advised that they were shocked at his arrest and very confused about the information concerning him which came forth at his trial. They advised that Mrs. PERL had been grievously upset for the past year but that she had never told them anything which would cause them to believe that she had any idea of subject's activities. They advised that she, too, was confused and upset at the course of events.

Mrs. P.RL, at the outset of the interview with her, was advised that the purpose of the agents visit was to secure from her information that she had in her possession which would throw some light upon the activities of her husband. She stated that she knew nothing about her husband's activities that she had not fully disclosed to agents in the past. She repeated her association with subject and how she had lived at 65 Norton Street in New York City, had become his common-law wife, and had gone to California, and the fact that she had lived with him in Cleveland as his wife.

She stated that in all of her association with PERL when she lived with him, he always came home to her at night and never went out any place without her. She stated that it was this fact, that during their entire association they were always together, that caused her to be so confused concorning the allegations that he was engaged in espionage. She stated that she could not understand how he could have been doing anything against the interest of this government while he was living with her.

She stated that while she was at 65 Morton Street, she, on occasion, had forwarded checks to Mr. ALFRED SARANT at Ithaca, New York, for the ront. She stated that while she was at Morton Street, she never met JULIUS ROSENBERG or ETHEL ROSENBERG, his wife. She advised that all she knew about the ROSENBERGS is what she read in the newspapers. She stated that she believed that she met AL SARANT on one occasion. She could recall no incident while she was living at 65 Morton Street which aroused her suspicions in any way. She advised the agents that she wished sincerely that she could help them, and stated that if she had any information, she would willingly advise the government of the same. [4]

Sho stated that she had lived with subject in Cleveland and to her knowledge the only persons he associated with were fellow employees at the National Advisory Cornittee for Aviation (NACA). She was asked if he at any time ever mentioned the name of MIKE or ANDOROVICH. She advised that she never heard of these individuals except the information that was brought out concerning them at her husband's trial. She was asked to recall the names of any other individuals that her husband associated with in Cleveland, and she said that she knew of none because, as far as she could one recall, he always came home after work and remained in her company. W

The events of the visit of VIVIANACLASSIAN to her My. husband in July 1950, when GLASSIAN offered him $2,000 to flee to Mexico, were discussed in detail with Mrs. PERL. She was asked how she could reconcile these events with PERL's claim that he was innocent. She stated that she could not understand this series of events, and it was pointed out to her that this followed the pattern of flight as shown in the case of DAVID GREENGLASS and MORTON SOBELL.

It is noted that DAVID GREENGLASS is a self-admitted espionage agent and that MCRTON SOBELL was convicted of conspiracy to commit espionage with JULIUS and ETHEL ROLENBERG

DAVID GREENGLASS testified at the trial of JULIUS and ETMEL ROSENBARG that JULIUS REJEMBERG had given him $5,000 with detailed instructions as to how he could flee to Mexico. MORTON SOBELL did flee to Mexico and testimony was adduced at his trial of how he traveled around Mexico under various names.

It was pointed out to Mrs. PENE that ALXSARANT. N.Y the man who rented the apartment at 65 Morton Street and to whom she had paid the rent, had disappeared from the United States and had entered Mexico with one CARCLEDAYTON, who was the wife of WEDON BRUCES AYTON. She was asked if she could reconcile these facts of the flight of all the above mentioned individuals with the fact that both her husband and VIVIAN GLASSIAN had proviously told agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation of the circumstances under which VIVIAN GLASSIAN had visited her husband. It was pointed out to Mrs. PERL that the fact that VIVIAN GLASSIAN came to her husband was not a mistake, and that she knew whom she was to visit, and that she knew the identity of the man who gave her the $2,000 to give to PERL.

It was pointed out to Mrs. PERL that DAVID GREENGLASS had told agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that JULIUS ROSENBERG had a friend, one of his "contacts", who was a consultant on a dam in Egypt and from whom ROSENBERG, on occasion, had borrowed money to give to DAVID GREENGLASS. It was pointed out to Mrs. PERL that Dr. THEODORTWOOD ARMAN had been called in by the Chemical Construction Corporation wy as a consultant for the hydro-electrification of the Aswan Dam at Aswan, Egypt: and further that during this time in 1947, her husband, WILLIAM PERL, was technical assistant to Dr. VON KARMAN and actually performed the bulk of the mathematical calculations involved in VON KARMAN's work on the dam.

She was advised that the Bureau had information which indicated that her husband was involved in espionage with JULIUS ROSENBERG over a long period of time. It was pointed out to her that DAVID GREENGLASS had testified that JULIUS ROSENBERG told him that he had two apartments that he used for espionage, one at Greenwich Village and another in the vicinity of Avenue B and 12th Street. It was pointed out to Mrs. PIRL that she had visited and lived in the apartment at 65 Norton Street, where her husband had also lived and which was rented by AL SARAHT (L)

She was asked if she could advise the agents why her husband, when he was at Columbia University and either living with his parents in the Brank or at 65 Norton Street, would have maintained a bank account in a bank on the East Side of New York. She stated this was one of the problems that was bothering her.

During all this conversation with Mrs. PERL, she advised that none of the matters that were discussed in any way refreshed her recollection of any event which would assist in this investigation.

She was asked if she knew JOEL BARR, and she advised that she did not except for what she had heard concerning him at her husband's trial.

Mrs. PERL advised that she had not attended the trial of JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG, but had read about it with great interest. She was advised that JULIUS ROSENBERG, under cross-examination, had used the Fifth Amendment when he was questioned about his Communist Party activities and, in particular, when he was asked, "Do you know WILLIAM PERL, also known as WILLIAM MUTTERPERL?" Mrs. PERL stated that she was not aware that JULIUS ROSENBERG had declined to answer questions about her husband and had reserted to the Fifth Amendment. She was asked if she know what was the association between JULIUS ROSENBERG and her husband that would cause JULIUS ROSENBERG to refuse to answer questions about their association on the ground that to do so might incriminate him. She was asked what actions WILLIAM PIRL was engaged in that would incriminate JULIUS ROSENBERG. She stated that she did not know.

It was pointed out to her that the fact of the visit of VIVIAN GLASSIAN to her husband in Cleveland with $2,000 with instructions to flee to Mexico, and the statements of DAVED GREENGLASS that JULIUS ROSENBERG had a contact who worked on the dam, and ROSENBERG's refusal to answer questions concerning his relationship with WILLIAM PERL, all pointed to the fact that it was most likely that PERL was engaged in espionage with ROSENBERG. Mrs. PERL advised that these matters had caused her great concern and that it was her purpose, at the earliest moment, to visit her husband at Terro Haute when she would question him concerning the information that she had discussed with the agents.

Upon inquiry by the agents as to who had been assisting her financially, she stated that she had received $100 from a man named NATHAN WEDEEN of 146 Central Park West. A.Y. She stated this man was the owner of the Dellwood Dairy Company and that she had mot him prior to her husband's trial through a friend of hers, DORIS STOWE. When questioned about this relationship, she stated that DORIS STOWE was a violinist and that MATHAN WEDEEN was also a student of music, and they both took lessons from the same violin instructor.

WEDLEM's apartment to attend a musicale. She stated that MEDLEM's apartment to attend a musicale. She stated that Mr. WEDLEM had offered her and her husband the sum of 2,00 to help them in their defense, and that she had accepted 2100 from him.

She advised that during July of 1954, she visited him at his apartment in Central Park West, accompanied by her young son. She stated that In. The EN's first wife had been incurably insane for almost seven years and was away in an institution, and that recently he divorced her and has since remarried. She stated that if she needed money in the future, she would accept from In. WEDEEN reasonable amounts to assist her to live.

She stated that she was noving to 7 West 92nd

Street. Apartment 73. How York City where she would reside under her maiden name, ELIMITE ASSAURCE. The expected to pay the sum of 190 per month, and to assist her she would take in a lady boarder or roomer. She stated she intended to place her son with her busband's parents, and that she would bring him to live with her on weekends. The advised that she intended to return to work and would probably use her maiden name or the name of HERRITTH BOYD. She intends to obtain employment as a free lance artist.

The stated that she had about 890 odd dellars in her account at the Emigrant Industrial Lavings Bank. She did not know whether she would use this money to go out to see her husband or whether she would seeme such funds from some other source. The stated she wanted to receive from her husband reasonable answers to the questions that she had in her mind and, in particular, to the matters that were discussed with the agents.

T-1, another governmental arenew which maintains personnel files, advised that was on- we ployed as a Clerk-Stenographer in the trace of the Director General of the Technical Assistance Administration of the United Nations in New York. In her application for employment she listed one of the Central Park West as a reference. T-1 also advised that

The records of the Credit Bureau of Greater New York, which were caused to be checked by 55 ATCHIED F. O'HEAL on October 7, 195h, reflected that MANUL AND EDN was a resident of 11,6 Central Park West and formerly lived at 266 Lyneroft Road, New Rochello, New York. It the latter address he owned his own house valued at 20,000 and was paying the sum of 200 per month for rent at his current address. Sum of December 19, 1949, he was married to one GENTRUDE. The was the Vice President of the Dellwood Dairy Company and the Niddletown Hilk and Cream Co., Inc. His income was listed as in excess of 115,000 per year and both firms were listed and rated with capitals over one million dellars. He had formerly been associated with the Puritan Dairies of Perth Amboy, New Jersey. There was nothing derogatory in the files of the Credit Dureau concerning that individual.

T-2, an organization having knowledge of businesses in the New York area, advised that the Dellwood Dairy Co., Inc. was incorporated in the State of New York on January 31, 1931. It is a subsidiary of the Middletown Milk and Dairy Co., Inc. NATION WEDELN is a Vice President of this company. He was born in 1896 and had formerly been associated with the Puritan Dairy Company of Porth Amboy, New Jersey.
